

SOLES4SOULS

Shoe Drive
June 1—January 31, 2012

Donate your shoes for the benefit of impoverished countries around the world.

What types of shoes can we donate?

Any kind . . .

-Gently used shoes will be given to people in need in various countries around the world.

-High-heeled shoes will be used to help establish micro-enterprises in these countries.

-“Trashed” shoes will be sent to India to be taken apart and recycled. e.g.: rubber goes one place, eyelets go another place, laces go another place, etc.

-Even single shoes will be matched up with other, like single shoes.

The Organizing Authority®

Soles4souls is a non-profit organization that collects shoes and distributes them to impoverished countries around the world. They also have provided shoes within the United States as well. You may visit their website for more information.

NAPO (National Assoc. of Professional Organizers) is collecting shoes for soles4souls in response to a challenge they posed to us at our last conference. The shoe drive runs from June 1 – January 31, 2012. We need to gather shoes and ship them to the soles4souls warehouse in Alabama.

Please contact us if you are able to place a collection box in your place of business or to help out.
