

15 Places to Donate: Ellen Limes, CPO; Organized by L

1. CRC – Clintonville Resource Center: Accepts a variety of clothing, household cleaning supplies and toiletries. 614-268-3539 <https://www.clintonvillecrc.org/>
2. My Brother’s Closet: Columbus Urban League provides professional attire to men reentering the work force. Accepts appropriate interview attire for men. 614-257-6300 x 106
<https://www.cul.org/initiatives/my-brothers-closet/>
3. Dress for Success: Provides professional attire for women reentering the work force. They accept clean, ready to wear career appropriate clothing. <https://dressforsuccess.org/>
4. Goodwill: They provide jobs of typically unemployable individuals. We toured their processing facility and our tour guide asked one of the workers if they liked their job. She was so excited to tell us about how much she loved her job. They have several convenient drop off locations.
5. Lions Club: Drop off old glasses at your local library and Lions Club will provide the glasses to individuals in need.
6. Verizon: Accepts used cell phones. Provides phones to underserved schools across the nation.
7. Turning Point: Responds to the needs of domestic violence victims. 740-382-8988. Accepts household paper goods, cleaning supplies, toiletries. <https://www.turningpoint6.org/>
8. The Furniture Bank: Through working with a social worker, they provide furniture and household goods for families in need, such as those coming out of a domestic violence situation or a devastating fire. www.furniturebankcoh.org 614-272-9544
9. Discovery Shop: They accept a variety of gently used, high quality household goods to sell at their stores to support the American Cancer Society. 1198 Kenny Centre Mall, Columbus, OH 43220, (614) 457-4227
10. Salvation Army: Accepts a variety of good to fill their stores to help fund rehabilitation programs that heal addictions, change lives, and restore families. <https://www.salvationarmyusa.org/usn/>
11. Amethyst: addiction recovery center. Accepts toiletries, clothing for women & children, small appliances. 614-242-1284 <https://alvis180.org/about/>
12. St. Stephens Community House: They provide a multitude of family services for people in the Linden area. They accept a variety of school supplies and clothing.
<https://www.saintstephensch.org/>
13. Andrews House: Among other programs, they provide lunch for Delaware children through the summer. They accept items to assist with lunch as well as cleaning supplies. 740.369.4520
<http://www.andrewshouse.org/>
14. Homeless Families Foundation: If it’s good enough for your child or family, it is good enough for HFF. Chad Gardner 614-715-8551 or cgardner@homelessfamiliesfoundation.org.
<https://homelessfamiliesfoundation.org/>
15. Habitat for Humanity: Restore accepts new or gently used furniture, appliances, housewares, building materials and more. <https://www.habitat.org/restores>